

BRING YOUR STYLE HOME

domino

WINTER 2020

THE RENOVATION ISSUE

LEANNE
FORD
RETURNS
TO HER ROOTS

COMING HOME

I love the juxtaposition of this lamp's clean, crisp body with the warm glow it emits.
Avery Pendant Lamp
$292 mymitzi.com

What better way to bring my love for the outdoors into the kitchen than with naturally imperfect green-hued granite?

I always set out a platter of bread and cheeses for us to snack on throughout the day.
Chopping Block
by Luke Bartels $260
woodshopsf.com

My rental's backsplash is covered in a similar wallpaper from Hermès. Just add a sheet of glass for a splash-proof surface. Stylobate Semmering Wallpaper by Hermès dedar.com

A necessary spot to dry tea towels is also an opportunity to display your favorite textiles.
Nicolai Utility Rail $199 schoolhouse.com

Cooking Illustrated

From my cozy New York City apartment, I often imagine having the square footage (and budget!) to prep giant pots of my family's pho recipe.

KATE BERRY
Executive Creative Director
@kateberrberry

A copper sink can take a beating but still look amazing.
Apron-Front Copper Sink
$2,499 rejuvenation.com

High-gloss paint contrasts beautifully with vintage tempered glass-paned cabinets.
Brassica Paint farrow-ball.com

For someone who cooks as much as I do, a giant range that marries form and function is exactly what I want in a forever stove.
Range by Matthew Quinn x La Cornue lacornuecollective.com

Over time these brass knobs will develop the perfect patina to pair with my lilac cabinets.
EX Design Series Cabinet Knob with Incised Lines erbutler.com

