Chandelier 40679-23 "Al Khobar"

The Russian Empire Family

This chandelier beautifully combines elements from our most elegant ranges of chandeliers. Designed in around 1900 this chandelier features the downward light bulbs common with the Historism chandeliers. These are contrasted by the delicate feather-like ornaments on the rims that are so typical for the Empire style.

The frame of the chandelier is made from exquisitely embossed and gilded brass rings. Unlike other chandeliers of this family the model has highly cut prisms instead of the standard icicles.
