Lantern 4202-6 "Louis XVI"

The French Baroque Family

This most fashionable lantern you will find in many French and English Manor houses. Originally of French Louis XVI style it is finely handcrafted with brass casting and gilded. The glass is a one-piece cylinder. Special care is given to the extensive decorations such as the bows and garlands as well as the pommels

Larger pieces will fit perfectly for portes cochères or entry halls, smaller versions for gangways and staircases. It is well suited for classic interiors or can add a playful touch to modern surroundings.
