Chandelier 42146-6 – Adam and George

The English Glass Arm Family

This glass arm chandelier is based on the simply shape of classical baroque chandeliers but decorated with extensive crystal to enrich its brilliance.

In contrast to its Bohemian cousins this type of chandelier conveys more splendour and real opulence to the room. As with the other glass arm chandeliers this model is made from lead free crystal. The chains and crystal are linked in a lasting and enduring fashion making cleaning relatively easy.
