Chandelier 42283-12 "Musikverein"

The Milano Family

This is a very simplistic interpretation of the typical bag-and-tent motive of chandeliers of the early 20th century. It was designed for the Golden Hall of Vienna's "Musikverein" concert hall.

The metal frame is made of brass with a gold finish. The structural parts behind the crystal chains are covered with a nickel finish.

Through the simple design, these versatile chandeliers can be made in almost any size. Our experience showed that they are very useful large halls such as concert halls or hotel lobbies.
