Ceiling Fixture 6332-A-1 "Ambassador"

The Haerdtl Family

Accustomed to Oswald Haerdtl's long and slender shapes this cute little fixture strikes the eye as something special. With this fixture designed for the Hotel Ambassador he brings his floral and playful style into small rooms.

The brass frame is fashioned in the same branched way as other pieces of his design but confined to a little ceiling basket. The surface is finely polished. As crystal Haerdtl used colourful leaf-shaped pieces in alternation with clear items.

Such he creates a lofty and light fixture which is perfectly fit for bed rooms or dressing rooms with low ceilings. Alternatively this fixture can be suspended from chains thus creating a pendent lamp.
