Attentive minds wandering through the Manufactory's premises on the north side of the grand circle will notice that as well as plates and luminaires, Nymphenburg also makes tiles and wastepaper bins. Here, the staff work with high-quality porcelain as a matter of course, and that on a daily basis. A pleasure that you can also enjoy at home, by serving eggs at breakfast in the eggcup Belle by Konstantin Grcic, accompanied by this pink-tipped egg spoon Bon.
