

CHINOISERIE – PAINTED – CHINESE MAN WITH 'SERPENT'

Hand painted

Design: Franz Anton Bustelli, approx. 1757

height 15 cm · product no. 01.140

Lavish parties attended by members of Rococo court society were always accompanied by the commanding bass tone of the serpent. There are also two boys among Franz Anton Bustelli's group of Chinese figures encouraging people to dance with their golden snake-shaped horns. With an easy vivacity, this musician, clad in a striped shirt and wide trousers, plays the 24-carat gold-plated instrument, while seemingly dancing at the same time.
